1. NMIOTC has developed this course by taking into consideration both lessons learned from various tactical missions and evaluations of Final Tactical Exercises (FTXs) conducted at the Centre's premises. NMIOTC has identified a performance gap with regard to on-site treatment of casualties, particularly in the maritime environment.

2. “Medical Combat Care in Maritime Operations” Course relies on SACEUR's latest Annual Guidance on Education & Training (SAGE 19). In particular, the subject course integrates and incorporates the Alliance's capacity building initiatives and the desired interoperability into tactical level training, so as to educate and train SOF and non-SOF medical support personnel to develop Alliance's and Partner Nations' harmonized medical care capabilities and capacity (Ref “D”, A-1-13).

3. Within this framework and taking into consideration the importance for NATO forces to cooperate with non-NATO forces, medical support staff should enhance joint and multinational cooperation skills and at the same time achieve standardization in terms of emergency medical care procedures. Medicine will continue to become highly specialized and technical, so military medical support will need to develop unique and advanced integrated capabilities to respond to the respective threats. The goal of this course is to transfer knowledge and create or enhance trainees' skills so as to provide medical combat care from the point of injury in the mission/theatre until the final transfer of the casualty to the closest Medical Treatment Facility (MTF) is accomplished. At the same time, interoperability and standardization will be achieved.

4. The Course will consist of two parts (two weeks) with different but connected performance objectives. Upon completion of the 1st week, trainees will be able to construct evidence-based and life-saving tactical combat care knowledge and practical skills in order to improve survivability on the battlefield, based on the newest Co -

TCCC Guidelines for Medical Personnel. The 2nd part (2nd week) aims to integrate the medical personnel skills and knowledge in performing necessary pre-hospital emergency on-site medical assistance, from the point of injury/illness in the mission/theatre until the final transfer to the closest MTF. The training will focus on providing medical combat care in maritime operations, taking into consideration that the same medical procedures can be as well applicable within MIO context. In addition, legal concerns and restrictions of the maritime environment will be discussed.

5. After the completion of the Course, students shall be able to:
  - a. Introduce basic knowledge in relevance to human anatomy and physiology (ADL module);
  - b. Administer the basic pharmacology framework for Medical Combat Care (ADL module);
  - c. Construct the Scaffold for the Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC);
  - d. Develop medical knowledge and skills to recognize and treat life threatening injuries on the battlefield (i.e. lethal bleedings, airway dysfunctions, circulation problems e.t.c.);
  - e. Present pre-mission medical planning;
  - f. Organize an individual First Aid Kit and medical providers' bags;
  - g. Explain a series of basic medical documentation to escort the casualty;
  - h. Explain MARCH-ON acronym during different TCCC stages;
  - i. Support medical personnel in a mass casualty situation;
  - j. Understand basic principles of recovery of persons collected at sea;
  - k. Examine legal considerations for providing medical aid at sea;
  - l. Apply TACEVAC procedures in support of Maritime Interdiction Operations;
  - m. Recognize and evaluate stress factors during medical combat care;
  - n. Recover and treat persons collected at sea;
  - o. Perform initial casualty treatment at the site (MOULAGE);
  - p. Comprehend how to create and use improvised medical equipment, in case those standard medical resources are unavailable and/or inadequate.
  - q. Plan & conduct Final Tactical Exercise based on different medical assistance scenarios (FTX)

6. Target audience: Officers and Petty Officers (OR-4 to OF-2) from NATO and partner nations, including SOF team members and medical support personnel involved in Maritime Operations (both from the shore side and when interfacing with vessels). Participants with duties and interests in delivering necessary pre hospital medical assistance during maritime operations with limited equipment in confined spaces, treating on life threatening injuries on the battlefield and stabilizing and preparing battlefield casualties for evacuation are eligible to follow this training. Furthermore, personnel from other related Governmental Agencies (Coast Guard, Border Guard, Port Police, Intelligence services etc.) with similar responsibilities are also eligible to participate.

7. Pre – Study & Eligibility:

a. Students are required to study in advance a handbook and a glossary with terms, definitions and abbreviations which will be delivered to them. Participating personnel will have to successfully complete two (2) ADL modules in relevance to basic anatomy, physiology of the human body, basic pharmacology, MARCH-ON Acronym. Students must present qualification (certificate of completion) for each module upon their arrival at NMIOTC. An electronic version of the handbook and the glossary along with links for the ADL modules will be delivered to the participants with the Joining Instructions.

b. In addition, trainees should score 75% or higher on the pre test which will be provided in due time (25 Multiple Choice Questions – open book test). The questionnaire will be based on the provided handbook and the required ADL modules.

c. Participants will have to achieve at least 80% on the final evaluation of the 1st week (performance and knowledge based tests) in order to acquire the certificate of completion which will be accompanied with a list of medical support skills that trainees will be certified to perform. A certificate of attendance (instead of completion) will be delivered to those who will not meet these criteria.

d. Trainees who wish to attend the second week only should present qualification for medical personnel level skill set (respective skills are as per Ref. “E”). Additionally, upon their arrival and during the 1st day of the 2nd week they will be evaluated and must score 75% or higher on the 2nd week pre test which will include theoretical (Multiple Choice Question Evaluation) and practical part in order to be eligible to participate.

e. Attendance of the participants is obligatory in order to be considered as “successful attendees”. Participants who fail to attend 85% of the Course are not entitled to acquire the graduation certificate (standard NMIOTC certificate of completion or attendance accordingly).

8. The Course will be conducted in English. Translation into other languages will not be provided. The following proficiency standards in English are required to be met: Listening–Good (3), Speaking–fair (2), Reading–Good (3) and Writing–Fair (2), IAW STANAG 6001 (SLP 3232). Basic skills in a Graphical User Interface (GUI) Operating System, as well as basic skills in Word processing and PowerPoint Presentation are required. No previous medical skills and experience are required for the trainees who will take both weeks.

9. This is a pilot course, marked as “NATO Unclassified/Releasable to PfP (except Russia)/MD/ICI/PatG/Releasable for Internet transmission”. NMIOTC applies security arrangements and regulations according to NATO standards.

10. A draft agenda for this event is hereby attached as Enclosure “1”. The final agenda will be included in the Joining Instructions for this Course.

11. The Course will start on Monday, 05 and will end on Friday, 16 Nov 2018. Training hours are from 08:30 to 15:00. Additionally, two (2) night trainings will take place. Due to the fact that the Course will be executed with the cooperation of a private training institution, the Course is subject to the achievement of the minimum number of participants.

12. Subject Matter Experts (SMEs): All trainers and augmenters are trained, experienced and licensed as Health Care Professionals by the Greek law with proper certifications regarding medical training and/or tactical medical training. In addition, a medical director, licensed according to the Greek regulations and laws, will supervise the Course.

13. The administrative cost (tuition fees) for this two weeks course is 700.00€ (300.00€ for the 1st week and 400.00€ for the 2nd week). Comprehensive administrative instructions are provided in Enclosure “2”.
